Beloved friends and family,

As I am writing, I am encouraged with God's faithfulness and love that He continually demonstrates.

Concord, NC

The work here in Concord is going well. Brian (student doing internship with me) and myself are working together in leading different evangelistic outreaches. Besides street witnessing in downtown Charlotte, we street preach on Friday nights in front of a big mall and restaurants as cars drive by. People are hearing the gospel from their cars, and others pull over asking for prayer for healing, salvation, deliverance, to be filled with God's Spirit and more... Another area we are focusing on is reaching Muslims. We have been going to the University in Charlotte meeting international students and connecting with Arabs and other Muslims on campus. God is opening doors to build relationships with Muslims to make His glory known to them. As Islam is rising all over the world, we need to seize the opportunity to be witnesses to them of God's love & power.

Training to reach Muslims

I have had the opportunity to lead a small group study, training believers to understand Muslims and effectively reach them with the gospel. The material I am using is put together by www.crescentproject.org. About 12 people have attended this training and are now looking for opportunities to share and demonstrate the gospel among Muslims.

Outreach to the Muslim Day Parade in New York

As I heard of thousands of Muslims planning to gather at a parade in Manhattan, NY in the month of October, we knew we must go reach them. In just a few days, God put a team of 14 together, provided hundreds of 'More Than Dreams' DVDs to give to Muslims to take home, and made it possible for all of us to go. The weather turned out to be very cold, and about 1000 Muslims gathered for the parade. Once again God unified us with other believers who came to witness and gave us favor among Muslims. Many heard the gospel, saw God's love in us, and had God's seed sown in their heart. Hundreds took the DVD with them. It is time for a harvest among Muslims. I continually keep hearing of Muslims converting and following Christ. We will be seeing much more fruit and God's kingdom advancing in the Muslim world.

Be encouraged, God is pouring out His Spirit around the world and drawing many to Him, and He will do that where ever you are! Seek His face and do not lose heart!

Thank you to all who faithfully partner with us, making it possible to keep moving forward! Your love and commitment is an answer to prayer!

With much love from,
Fabian, Carol, Micah & Evangeline
